Foundation Course in Mediation

Accredited by the College of Mediators and delivered by Global Training in partnership with Global Mediation

The Foundation Course in Mediation is a comprehensive, practice-based programme designed for professionals who want to train as mediators and build confidence, competence and professional readiness.

Course overview

- 6-day, in-person training programme.
- Delivered at our training home in Finchley, North London.
- Grounded in current research, ethical practice and inclusivity.
- Highly interactive and experiential, with extensive role play.
- Led by experienced, qualified mediators and trainers.

You will receive teaching in all aspects of the mediation process, with learning embedded through practical exercises, immersive scenarios, reflective practice and assessment.

The course is so rich! Both in content and experience. It has been a fantastic balance of skills, learning and purpose through inspirational tutors!"
